

Everything Belongs

1. Jesus restores God's original purpose and plan for humanity
2. God's own creativity, his knowledge, his interest, and his love are flowing within our lives
3. God's immanence is not simply God present with us, but it is also God participating in us
4. Our inclusion in the dance of life is not a goal, or something to attain or achieve; it is the way things are
5. While there is oneness, there is also individuality
6. As we act in wrong ways, we get out of step with the dance of life flowing from the Trinity
7. We must remove the illusion that God is absent or that we are not accepted
8. God delights in including humans in his work and fellowship
9. What are we to make of the fact that the vast majority of God's time on earth was spent making things with his hands?
10. God is closer than we think
