

Taking Calvary's vision to a new level of intentionality

Our three part vision / a mental model of transformation

1. A transformed life intentionally engages a mental model of transformation.
 - a. Intimacy: reflective lifestyle where we listen to God and give our word to what he is doing to redeem and restore people, systems, and institutions to their redemptive calling
 - b. Community: authentic community of shared lives that leads to shared vision
 - c. Kingdom: radical obedience which leads to a missional life (on mission with Jesus)
 2. We compartmentalize our lives; yet, we need all three parts of the mental model for transformation to live a whole, balanced, healthy, life.
 - a. In other words, some people tend to specialize in intimacy, community, or kingdom. But, transformation requires intentionality in all aspects of spiritual life.
 - b. You can't choose to work on intimacy, and neglect community or kingdom. Loving God demands loving others and taking Christ to the nations.
 - c. You can't experience true Christian community unless you are walking with closely with God personally and walking out what God is saying to impact a broken world.
 - d. You can't focus on extending God's kingdom without loving God first and doing it together with others.
